Within commutative algebra, my research focuses on a class of (local) rings called Gorenstein rings. To develop the notion of a Gorenstein ring, I will give several examples which highlight various useful characterizations of said rings, including the work I have done to characterize Gorenstein rings in the setting of prime characteristic rings.