

Announcing!
Texas Middle and Secondary Mathematics Project
Funded by the
National Science Foundation
Year 3 - Recruitment - Middle and Secondary Level

Hosted by
Stephen F. Austin State University
Nacogdoches, Texas

- WHO: Teachers wanting to become 4 – 8 or 8 – 12 grade-level mathematics content specialists
- WHAT: Graduate program in mathematics education
- WHEN: January 2006 – August 2008
- WHERE: Stephen F. Austin State University --
Dr. Jasper Adams (adams@math.sfasu.edu)
Dr. Kimberly Childs (childs@math.sfasu.edu)
Dr. Debbie Pace (pace@math.sfasu.edu)

TEACHER BENEFITS:

- * Master of Science: School Mathematics Teaching
- * Class Schedule adapted to teaching schedule
- * Scholarships to be used toward tuition, fees, books, and materials

DISTRICT BENEFITS:

- * Improved mathematics instruction to meet challenges of the TEKS/TAKS
- * Qualified candidates for the Master Math Teacher exam
- * Mathematics mentors for new teachers

TEACHER RESPONSIBILITIES:

- * Thirty-six hour graduate program
- * Two 3-week summer sessions each summer
- * Six on-campus Saturdays each fall and spring

DISTRICT RESPONSIBILITIES:

- * Acknowledgement of professional development hours
- * Consideration of teacher release time from various campus responsibilities

Apply online beginning Tuesday, September 13 at:
<http://www.faculty.sfasu.edu/kchilds/nsf2.html>

For more information contact:
Dr. Kimberly Childs, childs@math.sfasu.edu
Voice: 936-468-1636 Fax: 936-468-1669

DEADLINE: NOVEMBER 15, 2005